A Christmas Letter From Max to Anna

26th of December, 2017
Maxilom Street, London

Dear Anna,

How are you? I'm writing to tell you the activities I did on Christmas Day.

I spent Christmas day with my family. Firstly, we attended the yearly Christmas service in the morning. I saw the British queen there! Next, we ate lunch and played a Christmas Treasure Hunting game inside the house. Later that afternoon, we went to donate some toys to the orphans. Then, we gathered to eat a delectable dinner prepared by Mom in the evening. Lastly, we exchanged gifts! It was the most exciting part of Christmas. I felt so happy to receive a book from my favorite author and a new thick hoodie.

How about you? What activities did you do on Christmas day? Please write soon.
