

EXERCISE O REV1.1

 Reading Exercise

1. My friend's mother gave me a sweatshirt on my birthday.
2. Children should cross the street with an adult with them.
3. That chap across the street is my friend.
4. My fellow citizens are famous for being hardworking.
5. An accident happened yesterday but we are happy we're still alive.
6. I saw a blind man crossing the street yesterday.
7. The company president shared a brilliant plan for the leadership training.
8. I know he is clever because of the way he answers the questions.

EXERCISE O REV1.2

 Reading Exercise

1. I have a little time to study today.
2. I have little time to study today.
3. There are a few books in my room.
4. There are just a few books in my room.
5. There are few books in my room.
6. There's a little milk in the refrigerator.
7. There's just a little milk in the refrigerator.
8. There's only a little milk in the refrigerator.

EXERCISE O REV1.3

 Reading Exercise

1. The two types of sex are male and female.
2. The lady was confused with the question he asked.
3. The question he asked was confusing.
4. There's little milk in the refrigerator.
5. There's too little milk in the refrigerator.

EXERCISE O REV2.1

Reading Exercise

1. There's a new building in my city for the elderly people.
2. He called me madam.
3. A person is not allowed to drive when he is drunk.
4. A person's spiritual aspect is important.
5. I supported his teaching career.
6. She had a good cry last night.
7. There are a lot of beaches in my country.
8. The people in my city are super friendly.

EXERCISE O REV2.2

Reading Exercise

1. The tourists in the Philippines love to go to the beaches.
2. Unemployment is common in some countries.
3. My friend is still unemployed.
4. The weight of this table is 10 kilograms.
5. The table weighs 10 kilograms.
6. I'm not sick; I am well.
7. Wild animals are dangerous.
8. The workers are willing to stay for the conference.

EXERCISE O REV2.3

Reading Exercise

1. They felt down because they didn't win the game.
2. I was a fish out of water when I visited their place.
3. His parents are dead so he just stood on his own feet.
4. She laughed her head off when he said something funny.
5. They have a long distance relationship.
6. A few pages fell out of the book.
7. They broke up because their relationship didn't work anymore.
8. He got a grip on the condition of their relationship.
9. They usually travel together.
10. Their travel was full of fun.

EXERCISE O REV3.1

Reading Exercise

1. The man that was talking to me is my teacher.
2. The man who was talking to me is my teacher.
3. The bag that is on the floor is mine.
4. The bag which is on the floor is mine.
5. The lady that is wearing a dress is beautiful.
6. The lady who is wearing a dress is beautiful.

EXERCISE O REV3.2

Reading Exercise

1. She was full of disappointment when her son lost the game.
2. He got his mother down when he failed his exam.
3. He was able to pull himself together after the death of his wife.
4. My friend managed to finish his studies.
5. The man gave her flowers to cheer her up.
6. She cheered up because of the gifts she received.

EXERCISE O REV3.3

Reading Exercise

1. She took medicine to relieve the pain she felt.
2. My mother has always cared about me.
3. He is just a typical student.
4. Her parents have always relied on her ability to succeed.
5. Something bad happened to my enemy and I couldn't care less.
6. I told him what to do but it just went in one ear and out the other.

EXERCISE O REV4.1

Reading Exercise

1. His friend spent his vacation in America last year.
2. The novel she bought was expensive.
3. The teacher told us the tale of her life.
4. She already booked a table at a famous restaurant last week.
5. The man has his own theory of the beginning of the world.
6. They usually play golf at the weekend.
7. We crossed the highway yesterday.
8. The hotel is in a beautiful location in the city.

EXERCISE O REV4.2

Reading Exercise

1. They checked in at 5 o'clock in the afternoon yesterday.
2. They will check out of the hotel at noon tomorrow.
3. I wanted to go to the supermarket but it slipped my mind.
4. A friend of mine dropped out of school because of being sick.
5. I usually work out in this room.
6. I hang out with my friends at the weekend.
7. She focuses on studying English.
8. The girl recalled what they did at school last week.

EXERCISE O REV4.3

Reading Exercise

1. My sister can afford to buy an expensive phone.
2. The manager interviewed some candidates for the job.
3. Their menu is found on the table.
4. The beautiful beaches in my place attract many tourists.
5. The beautiful beaches are one of the attractions in our country.
6. Teaching is her greatest skill.

EXERCISE O REV5.1

Reading Exercise

1. My father warned me that it's dangerous to walk alone in the evening.
2. My father gave me a warning of the danger of walking alone in the evening.
3. The manager blamed the worker for the accident.
4. The teacher assumed that the student understood the lesson.
5. The teacher's assumption was wrong.
6. Bad things always disappoint people.
7. She has the tendency to go to work late.
8. I believe in learning by doing.
9. All work and no play is not a good thing for people.
10. He gave the competition his best shot in order to win.

EXERCISE O REV5.2

Reading Exercise

1. The woman was crying in terror when the accident happened.
2. The man showed us some card tricks.
3. The government attempted to stop the crime in my country.
4. The government made an attempt to stop the crime in my country.
5. She tried to balance the book on her head.
6. She lost her balance and fell over.
7. Many sick people will benefit from the new drug.
8. The workers received many benefits from the company.
9. I was born in 1884: you work out my age.
10. I can account for the mistake I made.

EXERCISE O REV5.3

Reading Exercise

1. To learn English is fun.
2. It is fun to learn English.
3. To give another attempt in order to win the game is a good thing.
4. It is a good thing to give another attempt in order to win the game.
5. To account for the mistake I did is not very easy.
6. It is not very easy to account for the mistake I did.
7. To go to England is one benefit I have in our company.
8. It is one benefit I have in the company to go England.

EXERCISE O REV6.1

 Reading Exercise

1. The lady, who is wearing a red blouse, is my friend.
2. My sister's bag, which I don't like, is very old.
3. My father, who is 45 years old, goes swimming everyday.
4. The book, which is thick, is expensive.
5. The house, which is across our house, is very big.
6. That man, who is in their house, is my teacher.

EXERCISE O REV6.2

 Reading Exercise

1. The bag which she gave me was very old.
2. The book that he is reading is mine.
3. The lady who is wearing a red dress is my friend.
4. The company that I'm working for is very nice.
5. The task which they did was difficult.
6. My sister who helped me with my task got sick.

EXERCISE O REV6.3

 Reading Exercise

1. My sister likes eating biscuits.
2. I like potato salad.
3. He likes mushroom soup.
4. The manager can rely on her secretary to do great.
5. My friend predicted that it's going to rain this afternoon.
6. She reckoned that he was going to attend the party.
7. My friend's parents already approved their wedding next year.
8. They needed the approval of their parents.
9. There's a risk of an accident happening in this place.
10. It was a shock that they already broke up.